

THE ELECTION

ST. LOUIS ADOPTS SEGREGATION

Carries Both Ordinances By Overwhelming Majority. Negroes Badly Disappointed By Republicans. Carry Only Three Wards.

Leaders Lose precincts. Argus Advises Race To Take Fresh Courage. Fight Only Begun, Law Will Be Tested In Courts. Race Unity At Last. Organization Sure.

St. Louis voted overwhelmingly in favor of both segregation ordinances last Tuesday. Of the 19,087 votes cast on No. 1, 12,220 were for and 6,867 against, a majority of 5,353. No. 2, for 12,064; against, 17,800, a majority of 5,736. The total indicates that about 60,000 whites voted and less than 10,000 voted against the measures. The law will be operative in ten days from this election. It will have no effect upon present residential conditions. It does not compel anyone to move, but will govern future changes. No colored or white resident can move into a block occupied by 75 percent of the opposite race. The law also places the same restrictions on schools, churches, halls and all places of assembly.

A sign of relief was witnessed on the faces of the colored people of this city Wednesday morning, after nearly four months of strenuous work. Early in November, last, the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People opened headquarters at Pythian Hall, 337 Pine St. This association had direct charge of the fight against the ordinance. Miss Kathryn M. Johnson, National Field Agent for the association, was here and rendered valuable assistance in the fight.

The colored voters, as a whole, voted against the measure. Not a single exception has positively been sighted.

Some White Friends

It is proper to say that the colored people were not alone white friends who were true in every sense of the word and who helped in the fight as a matter of principle, and who are willing to go still further to see that right and justice is accorded to all.

Badly Disappointed

The colored people were badly disappointed with the result of the election, saying, we were deceived by those who professed to be in the fight as a matter of principle, and who stood for justice and equality before the law. The Republican party was severely criticized as hypocritical in their promises, and accused of "lying down" at the polls.

Constitutionality

The constitutionality of the segregation law has been before the courts of this city or state. The attorneys for the National A. A. P. for the Advancement of Colored People will take the case into the courts as early as possible. It is the general opinion that the law is unconstitutional and will not stand the test in either the state or the United States courts.

The Man That's Down

Now that the white people of this city have had an opportunity, by their vote, to "state" the black man in the back and to "strike" the man that is down, it is still hoped that there is enough humanity left in him to permit him to see his error.

Organization

The colored people of this city will organize their forces and their resources to oppose the existing insults that follow as much as everywhere they have been enacted.

Result by Precincts

Dividing the city into sections, the returns show that each section had a heavy majority in favor of the ordinance. In the central district the fifth, sixth and seventh wards a majority of 1,100 against, but the 12th, 18th and 20th gave a majority of 2,851 for winning by 1,750. In this district the 19th ward was carried by the yes vote by only 13.

The South St. Louis district, comprised of the 7-9, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15th, went over by 19,973 majority. In Mayor Kiel's ward, the 19th, the yes majority was 1,255. In Kiel's own precinct the vote was 101 to 21 for segregation. John Schmoll, chairman of the Republican City Committee lost his ward, the 12th, by a majority of 2,825. Schmoll's precinct went 10 to 1, 100 to 19 for segregation. The west end wards, comprising the 23, 26, 27, 28th, gave a majority of 5,847 for segregation. The 27th ward alone voted 4,133 to 304. In the 23rd ward, the 18th, 9th and 10th precincts went 167 for and 564 against. The entire ward returned a majority of 701 for the measure.

In the north and northwest wards, the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 18th, 21st, 24th and 25th, the majority for was 10,765. The 22nd in which the Ellersville district is located, voted 2,339 yes to 934 no. The fifth is a democratic ward, composed of Jews, Negroes and foreigners. State Senator, Mike Kinney, is the democratic committeeman. He delivered his ward against segregation, 516 yes to 86 no. The vote in the 17th ward was 906 for and 1,278 against, a majority against of 692. The above figures apply to the ordinance No. 1 only.

Unity Among Negroes

The anti-segregation campaign demonstrated one fact that cannot pass unnoticed: The unity among the Negroes in fighting the enemy. There was no shirking of duty; everyone was keyed up to the highest point of enthusiasm and action. Of course, there were a few who were more conspicuous than others, but the mention names may be an injustice. The men and women who worked day and night, silently but effectively; the automobile owners who loaned their cars and their service for distribution of literature; the chorists and the Booker Washington Theatre that displayed huge streamers; and the lawyers who rendered such valuable legal service; all without monetary compensation, but all for the cause of good, will be well remembered and justly rewarded.

T. J. NEVINS DENIES RUMOR

Recent rumor would have it that I am in favor of segregation. I want it understood, and especially by the party of politics responsible for the talk that I brand all such as malicious lies, without foundation or fact. On the other hand, I can promise to state the black man in the back and to "strike" the man that is down, it is still hoped that there is enough humanity left in him to permit him to see his error.

Signed, Thomas J. Nevins, 2324 N. Newstead Ave., City.

REPORT ON SEGREGATION

During the recent campaign against segregation, Chas. C. Ochs delivered ten addresses among the lodges and churches of the Hebrews. Called and financed two meetings, he drew down the following: R. A. McElwain, $2.00; E. White, 50 cents; Dr. T. A. Curtis 50 cents; Rev. R. F. Abbott, $1.00; J. E. Davis, $1.00; Dr. R. C. Anderson, $1.00; Chas. C. Ochs, $10.00. Expense of meetings, $18.00.

CONCERT SERIES AT PYTHIAN HALL

Beginning March 2nd Under Direction of Major McElroy With Odd Fellows' Band Boys

According to a statement given out by Major P. L. McElroy, who has charge of the Odd Fellows Juvenile Band, arrangements have been made to give a series of band concerts at Pythian Hall beginning Sunday afternoon, March 12.

These concerts have been very helpful to the boys in the past, as well as a benefit to the general public. The boys are very anxious to please their friends in these concerts.

The people of this city will know the public spirit of Major McElroy, how he has labored with the boys of this band that they might have musical training. He was a member of the campaign committee of the Y. M. C. A. during the recent rally to raise $50,000 for the new building, and was a liberal contributor to the cause. He stated that the band has done much charity work and therefore was entitled to a large patronage. Watch the Argus for big announcements.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

For Workers in Young Women's Christian Associations in Cities Beginning March 15

The National Board of Young Women's Christian Associations in the United States has planned a conference for the employed and volunteer workers in the city associations. This conference is to be held March 12, at Wheatley Branch, W. C. C. A. Much thought and care have been given to make the program strong, both from a technical and inspirational standpoint. Three sessions will be held daily, beginning at 10 a. m. Strong leaders have been secured, and each hour will be helpful.

The lecture to be given on Thursday by Dr. Anna L. Brown, a noted specialist, will be of special value to mothers, teachers and workers with girls.

The lecture on "The Christian Task," by the Rev. H. L. Herold of Indianapolis, Ind., each day, bring a definite message to all. Other leaders will be Miss Josephine W. Pinyon, of the National Board; Miss McFarland, of the South Central Field Committee; Miss Colt, Miss Beecher and Dr. C. C. of the local work, and Mr. David L. Jones of the C. C. A.

A mass meeting of men and women will close the conference on Sunday, March 12, at 4:30, at which time Rev. Herold will deliver the closing address. Already delegates are expected from Indianapolis, Chicago, Kansas City and Brooklyn.

Miss Eva D. Rowie has been appointed by the National Board as executive of the conference.

GROUP OF WORKERS IN THE ANTI-SEGREGATION FIGHT

ARGUS PRAISED

Receives $35 From the Editors of Tacoma, Washington, Forum

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 25, 1916. Argus Pub. Co.

Gentlemen: I have just wired you twenty five dollars to help you in the anti-segregation fight. I am a former St. Louisian and was known as "Booty" Alexander. I have kept up with this fight through the columns of the Argus and I wish to congratulate you for your intrepidity.

I truly hope the Negroes of St. Louis will appreciate your efforts. I am anxiously waiting the outcome of the election February 29. With best wishes for your future success, I am, for my race, Ella Ryan, 2404 North Mason Boulevard.

—Note: Mrs. Ryan is editor and publisher of a newspaper in Tacoma. She doubtless has made "good." She has a brother in St. Louis, Mr. Clifford Alexander, who lives on Belle Glade Ave. We thank Mrs. Ryan for the kind thought. She should be able to see the editor of the Argus smile.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER FLOCK TOGETHER

This is an old, but true saying. It matters not about principle, honesty or merit; all that is looked for is the color of one's politics or religion counts nothing against color. And a colored man may be honest, intelligent and capable for a position against a white man who may be dishonest, ignorant and unworthy, yet he will be supported because he is white, regardless of his faults. When the white man assumes he is white and gets the colored man support; when the colored man aspires, his white brother defeats him on account of his color. All nations combine against him. His honesty and merit count nothing; his color is against him. His only hope is in God, who has no respect to persons. When a small boy I learned I was colored, although my father and mother were the same man, yet I never thought I was white, and do not wish now to invade my father's house to mingle with my halfbrothers and sisters, but would rather dwell with my mother's children. God only can mete out justice to all, and will do so in his own time.

Let us wait and trust Him. Rev. J. L. Colborn said God alone was the Negro's hope. I believe it.

J. M. W. STOKES.

A SHOCKING DISAPPOINTMENT

The election Tuesday in its results was a shocking disappointment. It has cast a deep gloom over the Negro; it lessens his faith in the white American's love of fair play; it causes the Negro to look upon the declaration of inalienable rights in our Constitution as a "glittering generality"; it causes him to regard the constitutional guaranty of "equal protection of the law" as "a sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal," and the many laws granting citizenship to the Negro as monumental lies.

Segregation is barbarous enough, as despotic as Russia, but its sequences endanger every right guaranteed to the Negro. Jim Crowism, disenfranchisement, the right to the public use of the streets, the unrestricted right to testimony and to plead in the courts; the rights of ownership, to buy, sell or dispose of property without restraint; all and more follow in the footsteps of segregation. They can plainly see that segregation is a breeder of proscriptive; in the line it runs, it means the denationalization of the Negro.

Cry against it all the time; denounce it, expose it, organize against it; for every sentiment of honor and manly fraternity utters an indignant protest against it.

A BLOW THAT WILL REBOUND

Segregation carried three to one in St. Louis last Tuesday. It was a slap in the face, delivered, in part, by many of our so-called dear friends. St. Louis seceded from the great constellation of the anti-Jim Crow and anti-segregation cities. St. Louis, the gem of the Middle West and the metropolis of the Mississippi Valley, fall in line in the retrogressive march of the backward cities, like Louisville, Baltimore and Richmond. How, under such conditions, can she expect to maintain her place on the fourth city of the great nation? Cleveland does not segregate, nor does Los Angeles, nor Pittsburgh.

Now St. Louis has put the stigma on herself as a segregation city, which brings her down to the level of a backward city, or a Russian city, which makes no progress for a hundred years. Men of enterprise and means do not invest in cities where caste predominates.

The Negro did his best to defeat segregation; he cast a large vote, but his white friends failed to come and aid him as was promised and expected. Some of those who failed to do their duty will have a black line run through their names.

However, the fight has just begun. We shall fight segregation to the court of last resort, and then, if we fail there, we shall hammer on until the second sober thought of the American people shall reach, and the Constitution of the United States is made supreme in carrying out its command that "No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States." This must be done, or our national Constitution will be pronounced a lie. "Get together." Let that be a cry of the American Negro. Get your dollars together; get your votes together; get your energies together; get your business together and march on a solid phalanx in the battle for your civil, civic, business, educational and political rights.

The strongest and most effective organization devoted to the defense of the right and denunciation of the defense of the wrong, so far as the Negro is concerned, is the "National Association for the Advancement of the Colored People." It is composed of good men from both races. Let us join it, make it a national power, so that when it speaks the Republic will know that millions of people are behind it.

We can do little without unity. It is in unity our strength resides.

This segregation struck the Negro a blow, a great force, but, as Doctor Johnson says, "You need always estimate the force of a blow by its rebound." It will be the rebound when it returns that will make men see how they endanger their own liberties when they strike down the rights of the Negro, or the rights of any other element of American citizenship.

A REAL PUBLIC BENEFACITOR

As the smoke of the segregation campaign and its disastrous results fade away, there remains, conspicuously, one real public benefactor whose well executed policy is a consolation to the true American citizen. The Post-Dispatch, the "One Big Newspaper," which every Negro today is proud of, has never faltered in the path of justice paved by the following words of its great founder:

"I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent, never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty." April 10, 1907.

JOSEPH PULITZER.

The Post-Dispatch stands out alone untainted by the wave of inhuman prejudice that has discolored the fair name of this great metropolis. As a leader in the "fight for progress and reform" and against injustice or corruption, the Post-Dispatch is an inspiration to weak and struggling humanity. Its "sympathy with the poor" and devotion to the public welfare have often been demonstrated. It is a true representative of the principles of American independence and freedom, and a champion of justice and right. May it ever live and grow that its protection may always be a harbor for the persecuted and the downtrodden.

LANE TABERNACLE C. M. R.
 CHURCH NOTES

Last Sunday was Quarterly Meeting. Rev. B. S. Leander, P. E., presided at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. His sermons were forcefully delivered and the entire congregation was moved by the Holy Spirit.

In the afternoon a great Union Meeting was held. Rev. S. B. Anderson, pastor of St. Peter's A. M. E. Church, preached an excellent sermon. At the close of the service the Holy Communion was administered to 125 communicants. The Presiding Elder was assisted by Dr. W. Sampson Brooks. This was a great meeting. Nearly all the Methodist preachers of the city were present and added much to the service. At the close of the night service forty-one souls had been made to rejoice and joined the church. Collection for the day, $102.59. Raised during the quarter, $2,037.

M. Lewis, the gospel singer, is still on hand and will hold a special service on next Sunday afternoon, at which time everybody is expected to bring a nail. Come! Hear! See! What great things God can do.

Rev. N. L. Smith, the faithful and most beloved pastor, is working earnestly to make Lane Tabernacle second to none in the city. Too much cannot be said of his good and good man, and the most excellent manner in which he is handling his people. Visitors are always welcome.

The Epworth League, of Union Memorial Church, was very ably led last Sunday, by Dr. Jas. A. Simpson. On that occasion, Jas. Carroll has been asked to lead.

The Literary meeting on Friday is expected to be very enthusiastic. The following gentlemen have been asked to bring in eulogies on some particular character who has been active in opposing segregation. Messrs. H. C. Hunt, Jas. A. Taylor, Chas. H. Watkins, B. W. Jones and H. W. Beck.

M. OLIVER BAPTIST CHURCH
 1400 Morgan St.

Watch this church and its pastor for the good they shall render to the community. We are located in a part of this great city where much good may be done. Our pastor, Rev. A. Dickson, always has the go in the interest of the sick and the sinless soul. The public is invited to attend our services at all times. Every department of our church is in a healthy spiritual condition. Sylvester Noble.

LEONARD AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH

By W. Dawson
 The revival meeting continues with much success. Rev. J. B. Harris will be the guest of the church on Wednesday. We are glad to report that on last Sunday Rev. Dossant baptised seven converts and we have ten more waiting for baptism. Rev. Davis is laboring hard to our meeting for success. Come and hear, he will do good. We are now having afternoon meetings and they are very successful.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST
 CHURCH NOTES

By Mary Wilkins Fields
 The pastor, Rev. J. K. Parker, has returned from Kansas, where he reports having done great work for the Lord. Many souls were won for Christ through his spiritual influence. Dana Sumner had it that he had gone away on a matrimonial venture, but he is still one rib short.

Professor Thomas' dramatic recital Monday night was grand, especially those selections from Dunder. The two-act play entitled "Won Over" was also good.

The B. Y. P. U. had a good temperance program Sunday evening. Miss Helms Byrdner could well be called "the dollar saved is the dollar earned," if she had lost the basket.

The Mission Circle's rally Tuesday was a decided success. More than 800 were raised. Brother Butler won the $100 dollar offered to the one raising the largest sum over ten dollars.

Brother C. Griffin, a member of our church, who has been sick for some time, has been cured and is now able to go out on his own again. He is president of our trustees here.

PROSPEROUS CITIZENS OF ALTON

By J. M. Youngson

Rev. Geo. A. Brown, youngest son of the late Bishop John M. Brown, and his wife passed through St. Louis this week on their way to Chicago and Milwaukee. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Yeakel, of Garfield Avenue.

Dr. Brown, who is pastor of Campbell A. M. E. Church, at Alton, was loud in his praise of the people and their work at the home of Levey.

"Yes," said Dr. Brown in answer to an inquiry, "we are doing well in Alton; of course we have the drawbacks of white prejudice and Negro indifference. We are not doing as well as we could in all the same, constantly getting better and we have there an exceptionally large number of worthy Negro people. Rev. Dr. Geo. Mason, pastor of our St. Baptist Church and owner of an excellent farm, is exemplary of both the religious and business life of the community. Rev. J. H. Higgins, W. Turner, J. W. Tiff and John Grant are doing well. Then there are Mr. Harry Coates, our popular postal carrier, his estimable wife, and Miss Harriet Robinson, the talented daughter of our teachers; Anna Gillis, Geo. Meana, a city official; J. M. Breckinridge, a worthy man; Melcher A. A. Bowman and family are all most cultured people and owners of valuable real property. On Maple Avenue, is the beautiful home of Misses Francis and Florence Barber and their sister, Miss Barbara Barber, all of whom are among our best teachers of the U. S. At North Alton, Miss Harriet Ross holds forth as an instructor and, like so many others, resides in a pretty home at Maple Avenue. Fred Cole and Miss Pauline Brown are our successful teachers. At our church we have one of the best choirs in the state and among our best.

church people are such successful and worthy families, as the Waxes, Walkers, Derriels, Galloways, Shuppes, Sommers, Fox, Generous Adams, Lowerys, Williams, Klayns, Hammans, Ashleys, Binas, and Russels, and a great many others—all doing well. I must not forget the interesting Websters of Midway, the Charles, the Chas. and our popular undertaker, Joel Russell, and his splendid helpmate. In the business world J. T. Miller & Sons, James Herald, J. Davis, the Valters and our own Hollmans.

"Yes; you must visit Alton and see how exceptionally well the colored people are advancing there. Our principal reason need not see it, is more more widespread Negroes with capital to invest in business. We greatly profit to such success in our business and professional life as Dr. George Russell and wife, Messrs. Samuel Lewis and Florence, the latter as efficient helper; Arthur Evans and wife, Mrs. Francis Kelly and her sister, Miss Mary Clark, and numerous others. Alton has a well-coming hand for all Negroes who aim at right living and who are energetic and liberal minded. Such colored people as were with the respect and aid from the white people at Alton. There is no more striking proof of this than the standing of the esteemed Colonel Knight who has been an appreciated employee of one leading Alton firm for more than twenty years. His wife is a former St. Louis girl and their eldest daughter, Annie, is a teacher and a second daughter, Miss Lillian, graduates from the high school this year as valedictorian of the class.

"I could talk to you of the countless of Alton's Negro population till I consumed all the space of your admirable paper, but will take a more practical way of recommending you with. Send me your address and we will send you a copy of our paper. I cannot give you a glowing recommendation.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear hus-band, Samuel E. Belfour, who departed this life, one year ago, February 20, 1916.

Dimmed their beauty in before me,
Yet the spirit's eye would falter;
Died unspoke lovely features,
Still I seek, dear Lord in vain.
Tarry with me O my savior,
Let me see thy smile again.

"There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Eternal day exceeds the night,
And pleasures hush pain."

"Lord, in the morning, Thou shalt hear my voice declared high."

A loving wife, Sarah E. Belfour, 2103 Rogers St.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Wm. McMertry, who departed this life March 5, 1915:

A loving husband, kind and true,
Whom I shall miss on earth we find;
God called him home, it was his will,
But in our hearts he lingers still.

For all of us he did his best, May God grant him eternal rest.

Silently the shades of evening, gather round the door;
Silently they bring before us, that dear face we miss no more.

Rest in peace, your eyes are closed;
Rest in peace, your work is done.
You are gone and those who love you,
Now are coming: one by one.

Sadly missed by wife, Susan McMertry; mother, Mary Streightner; grand-daughter, Mildred Washington; and other dearest relatives.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Cora Steadman, who departed this life, February 9th, 1915.

Raise me, Jesus, to thy bosom,
Let me feel Thine arm around me,
Then my soul may know repose.

Sadly missed by mother, father, brother, sisters and little ones.

IN MEMORIAM
In and by loving remembrance of our dear sister, Bertha Tuttle, who departed this life four years ago, March 5th, 1912:

We have gone to your grave since your spirit has fled,
Where beneath the green turf you lay with the dead.

Our hearts shall be sad, but our prayers shall not cease,
Till forever we meet in the kingdom of peace.

Sadly missed by Bertha Hilly, sister; Cornelia Tuttle, brother.

IN MEMORIAM
In affectionate memory of our dear wife and mother, Rosan Howard, who departed this life March 25th, 1915:

Just one year ago today,
Since our dear mother passed away,
A loving mother true and true,
No friend like her we could find.

God called her home; it was His will,
But in our hearts she lingers still;
Though we know she is at rest,
In the mansion of the blest.

Peaceful be your sleep, dear mother,
The sweet to breathe your name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

Sadly missed by John Howard, hus-band, Adele, daughter; Henry, Charles, William and Beatrice, sons.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear sister, Susan Howard, who departed this life March 5, 1915.

Though our hearts with grief be broken,
And our lips with sorrow dumb;
Faithful is the promise spoken,
Resurrection time shall come.

And this one who was taken,
Shall to life and love awaken;
For she is sleeping, only sleeping,
Till the resurrection morn.

Sadly missed by R. and G. Kinsie, brother, Madeline D. Taylor and H. Robinson, sister, A. and M. Robinson, brother-in-law.

Birds' Nests Cause Fire

Birds' nests under the roof of a two-story corrugated iron structure at Twentieth street and Sedgley avenue, Philadelphia, caused a fire when they became ignited by sparks from hot sand in a mixer. The roof of the building was damaged about $100.

Nests are frequently found under the roof and they are destroyed every few days in order to prevent a fire. They were cleaned away recently, but the birds quickly rebuilt them.

TESTIMONIALS

W. L. Major, Oxford College.
Dear Sir:—
After using many other Hair Growers with no results, I met Mrs. Rosa Fields-Votig, agent for the Major Oxford College and after having my hair treated under the Oxford System and using the Oxford Hair Grower, I am pleased to say that my hair is now long and silky and admired by all my friends.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Williams Mayes,
